

Non-Discrimination Policy Letter

October 2018

Dear Ravalli County 4-H Club Organizational Leader,

The following policies are in effect for all persons associated with the Montana State University Extension Service 4-H/Youth Program. The purpose of this policy statement is to ensure that the Montana 4-H Program is inclusive rather than exclusive.

Montana State University and its constituents colleges and program including the Montana State University Extension Service 4-H/Youth program do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual preference, marital or parental status, age, religion, creed or political belief, mental or physical handicap or disability, or status as a Vietnam era or disabled veteran in admission, access to, or conduct of its educational programs and activities nor in its employment policies and practices. Discrimination in the 4-H/Youth programs is contrary to the purposes and policies of the Extension Service, Montana State University, the State of Montana, and the United States Department of Agriculture and is prohibited.

Ravalli County Extension Office

Participation in Montana 4-H and its programs is open to all interested youth regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, sexual preference, religion, creed, political belief, marital or parental status, or disability. Participation in some programs or aspects of 4-H may be subject to certain age requirements, specific enrollment deadlines, or specific ownership deadlines.

A participant, applicant for participation, professional or volunteer staff member, or any person needing accommodation because of a disability should request accommodation from the County Extension Agent.

Montana State University affords any participant, applicant for participation, or professional or volunteer staff member who believes he or she was discriminated against by the Extension Service 4-H/Youth program has the right to file a grievance on grounds of discrimination. Complaints of discrimination should be reported to the Human Resources/Affirmative Action Office, Box 172430, MSU-Bozeman, Bozeman, MT 59717-2430. TDD (text telephone): (406) 994-4191, Phone: (406) 994-2042.
